The Family and Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) permits Sheppard Pratt School to disclose appropriately designated directory information without written consent from parents/guardians. Directory information is information that is generally not considered harmful or an invasion of privacy if released. Directory information is designated as such primarily for the purpose of allowing the school to include this type of information in school publications.

Examples include:

- School yearbook
- Programs for graduation, activities such as fashion or talent shows, or sporting events.
- A class or group photo which includes the names of students and is shared with the students' parents
- Honor roll or other recognition lists
- Articles in a school newspaper

Sheppard Pratt School does need to obtain permission for video, photographic, and/or audio release that is not considered directory information.
