Clinical Supervision: The Tool for Enhancing the Ethical Practice of Those You Supervise

Gisele Ferretto, MSW, LCSW-C

Clinical Instructor, University of Maryland, School of Social Work
Baltimore, Maryland

This workshop will satisfy EITHER the "Ethics" OR "Supervision" CEU requirements. New BSWE Regulations (10.42.06.03) require that "Board-approved supervisors complete a minimum of 3 of the required continuing education units in a content area focusing on supervision. Supervisors have an essential role in teaching social workers professional ethics and strategies for addressing ethical issues in their practice. The purpose of this workshop is to enhance supervisory skills to help social workers understand their legal and ethical professional responsibilities. This workshop includes practice activities to apply the content covered and examples of strategies for enhanced supervision. This three-hour workshop will satisfy the three Supervision CEU requirements. (New BSWE Regulations [10.42.06.03] require that "Board-approved supervisors complete a minimum of 3 of the required continuing education units in a content area focusing on supervision.") In addition, the recent legislative changes to the child maltreatment definitions will be covered.

After attending this lecture, clinicians will be able to:

- Explore the functions and role of clinical supervision.
- Distinguish basic elements and terms associated with ethical decision making and the regulatory code of ethics.
- Demonstrate an understanding to instruct on the ethical concepts which impact behavioral health practice.

About this speaker:

Ms. Ferretto has 33 years of social work experience in both clinical and macro practice areas. Her areas of expertise include: policy and leadership development, field education, child welfare practice, professional ethics, confidentiality, and curriculum development. She graduated from the University of Maryland, School of Social Work in 1982.

Currently, Ms. Ferretto is the Manager for Field Education Training and Liaison Coordinator for the Office of Field Education. In addition, she supports the instruction of students in the Title IV-E Education for Public Child Welfare Program. Her work at the SSW over the past 18 years included administrative positions in the Title IV-E Education for Public Child Welfare Program, Child Welfare Academy, and Social Work Community Outreach Service (SWCOS).

Prior to coming to the SSW she served as administrator at the Maryland Department of Human Resources for 11 years in the following programs: Child Protective Services, Office of Equal Opportunity, and Office of Staff Development and Training. Many key policy initiatives developed by Ms. Ferretto are still in effect and address the following topic areas: mental injury; fair hearing process; screening of child maltreatment; confidentiality; risk and safety assessment; child abuse and neglect prevention and services; family violence; and sexual harassment prevention.

She serves as an active board member of the Archdiocese of Baltimore's Catholic Campaign for Human Development Foundation and NASW-MD Faculty and Student Committee.

Ms. Ferretto also provides consultation and training for private and public agencies on various topics and is a CAPT Qualified Administrator of the Myers-Briggs Type Indicator.

Early registration recommended, as space is limited.

In the event an announced speaker is unable to present, Sheppard Pratt reserves the right to present an alternate speaker on a comparable subject.
